

Brides Against Breast Cancer & UCF Rosen College Students Raise Money for Breast Cancer Research

English High Tea Benefit held Sunday, Oct. 26, 2008 from 2 to 6 p.m.

ORLANDO, Oct. 8, 2008 – October is National Breast Cancer Awareness Month and event management students from UCF's Rosen College of Hospitality Management are doing their part to make a difference. In collaboration with Brides Against Breast Cancer, students are hosting a traditional English High Tea to raise money for breast cancer research. The event will be held at the Winter Springs Mansion located at 1120 Tuskawilla Dr., Winter Springs, FL on Sunday, Oct. 26, 2008 from 2 to 6 p.m.

Brides are invited to attend and explore wedding options while enjoying tea, gourmet food selections, wedding cake, wine and champagne. Breathtaking wedding dresses donated by Brides Against Breast Cancer will be showcased and available for purchase. Live music will be provided by Ary Stabile. The beautifully renovated Winter Springs Mansion and Gardens sets the tone for the perfect afternoon and is available as a wedding and event venue. All proceeds raised from the English High Tea will support Brides Against Breast Cancer.

This event is part of the Pink Envelope Project, an initiative to raise money for breast cancer research. Event sponsors include DJ Fun Factory, BBJ Linens and John Michael Weddings & Special Events.

Tickets to the English High Tea are $25 for brides and $15 for guests. Space is limited, so reserve early at <http://babchightea.eventbrite.com>. Full event details are available on the website.
