We Are Hospitality

Hospitality is not defined by hotels alone - it includes events, country clubs, conventions, trade shows, tourism, restaurants, theme parks and attractions. It's about creating the most enjoyable experience for all guests, whether they are having a casual dinner out or attending a large convention. At Rosen College, we define hospitality as every element of the guest's experience away from home. To that end, we focus on three core principles: professionalism, leadership and service.

- More than 97% of students have full-time jobs upon graduation
- Many graduates rise to senior management in 2-3 years
- A rapidly growing alumni base of 6,300 worldwide
