

Hospitality Students Honor Philanthropic Organizations

ORLANDO, Mar. 20, 2009 – Students from the University of Central Florida's Rosen College of Hospitality Management are honoring the Top 25 Philanthropic Organizations as named by the Orlando Business Journal at the Enhance Your Senses event on March 24, 2009, at the Rosen Campus in Orlando.

This invitation-only event planned entirely by students, will highlight select philanthropic organizations that have embodied the true meaning of being hospitable. The evening will showcase the students' talents, abilities and passion towards the hospitality and tourism industry, while guests will enjoy an unparalleled display of cuisine, unique design and service.

Honorees will be made welcome as the Rosen College culinary team stimulates the palate and local artist and student Alex Baugh entertains. Partnering businesses, BBJ Linen of Orlando and A Floral Boutique Florist of Ormond Beach, will collaborate on custom designs and décor for the event.

The students are proud to present Enhance Your Senses, in an effort to honor and combine social responsibility and unmatched education in one spectacular evening.
