Reading Skills	Level	Your Performance
Reading	High (22-30)	Test takers who receive a score at the HIGH level, as you did, typically understand academic texts in English that require a wide range of reading abilities regardless of the difficulty of the texts. Test takers who score at the HIGH level, typically <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• have a very good command of academic vocabulary and grammatical structure;</li> <li>• can understand and connect information, make appropriate inferences, and synthesize ideas, even when the text is conceptually dense and the language is complex;</li> <li>• can recognize the expository organization of a text and the role that specific information serves within the larger text, even when the text is conceptually dense; and</li> <li>• can abstract major ideas from a text, even when the text is conceptually dense and contains complex language.</li> </ul>
Listening Skills	Level	Your Performance
Listening	High (22-30)	Test takers who receive a score at the HIGH level, as you did, typically understand conversations and lectures in English that present a wide range of listening demands. These demands can include difficult vocabulary (uncommon terms, or colloquial or figurative language), complex grammatical structures, abstract or complex ideas, and/or making sense of unexpected or seemingly contradictory information. When listening to lectures and conversations like these, test takers at the HIGH level typically can <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• understand main ideas and important details, whether they are stated or implied;</li> <li>• distinguish more important ideas from less important ones;</li> <li>• understand how information is being used (for example, to provide evidence for a claim or describe a step in a complex process);</li> <li>• recognize how pieces of information are connected (for example, in a cause-and-effect relationship);</li> <li>• understand many different ways that speakers use language for purposes other than to give information (for example, to emphasize a point, express agreement or disagreement, or convey intentions indirectly); and</li> <li>• synthesize information, even when it is not presented in sequence; and make correct inferences on the basis of that information.</li> </ul>
