ALUMNI SPOTLIGHT

Sophia Hatchitt '16 lives and works on the other side of the globe in Singapore as an Account Manager for TravelClick, a software solution for hotels.

Hatchitt graduated less than a year ago in August 2016, and while at Rosen she took full advantage of the internships offered to find her passion. An international internship in Okinawa, Japan set the wheels in motion to seek a career in Asia. That experience left her with the indelible impression that she wanted to work abroad, where she meets "amazing people" and enjoys "new and interesting cultures".

Hatchitt's clients at TravelClick are hotels based in Australia and New Zealand and she is fortunate to travel to these countries occasionally for work. A transfer student into Rosen College, Hatchitt exemplifies just how far your education can take you, pun intended.

Alumni:

Twenty-one students, 21 days, five cities and two professors leading the group. Those were the numbers during Summer session A when Rosen College launched its first short-term Study Abroad program to China.

The Study Abroad group visited five cities in China, including Beijing, Hangzhou, Shanghai, Suzhou, and Xi'an and brought back memories and knowledge of the tourism and hospitality industry. Read more about the first ever Study Abroad to China.
