ABOUT THE LATIN GRAMMY CULTURAL FOUNDATION:

The Latin GRAMMY Cultural Foundation was established by The Latin Recording Academy® to promote international awareness and appreciation of the significant contributions of Latin music and its makers to the world's culture, and to protect its rich musical legacy and heritage. The Foundation's primary charitable focus is to provide scholarships to students interested in Latin music with financial needs, as well as grants to scholars and organizations worldwide for research and preservation of diverse Latin music genres. Take action in supporting our mission by donating today via our Facebook page. For additional information, please visit us at www.latingrammyculturalfoundation.com. ABOUT AYMÉE NUVIOLA:

Aymée Nuviola is a Cuban singer, pianist, composer and actress. Nuviola is known for playing Celia Cruz in the TV Series “Celia.” She received a Latin GRAMMY for Best Tropical Fusion Album for her album “Como Anillo Al Dedo” at the 19th Annual Latin GRAMMY Awards. At the 57th Annual GRAMMY Awards, her album “First Class to Havana” was nominated best Tropical Latin Album. In May 2019, Nuviola released an album and documentary titled “A Journey Through Cuban Music,” a heartfelt tribute to the music and culture of the country that saw her grow and become an artist. Her music is heavily influenced by a variety of genres including classical, jazz, pop, bossa nova, bolero, among others. Some of her other albums include songs like “Donde Estabas Anoche,” with Septeto Santiaguero, “El Regreso A La Habana,” and “Todo Se Olvida.”

ABOUT TOP STOP MUSIC:

Top Stop Music (TSM) is an independent record label founded in 2008 based in Miami, Florida. Concentrating on the artist themselves rather than specific genres, TSM stands behind musical excellence and aims to create its niche in the music industry by focusing on the quality of its content and filling a growing void in the market with top notch acts.
