

From the Dean's Desk

Today, I delivered the inaugural State of the College Address for UCF Rosen College of Hospitality Management. The audience included members of our various degree program advisory boards, alumni, industry partners, faculty, staff and students. The message in the address looked at the past, the present and the future of Rosen College.

Breaking from my traditional bi-weekly communicate, this From the Dean's Desk will share the Facebook Live video from the State of the College address.
