We Are Hospitality

Hospitality is not defined by hotels alone - it includes events, country clubs, conventions, trade shows, tourism, restaurants, theme parks and attractions, healthcare and senior living. It's about creating the most enjoyable experience for all guests, whether they are having a casual dinner out, attending a large convention, or living their best life. At UCF Rosen College, we define hospitality as every element of the guest's experience away from home. To that end, we focus on three core principles: Professionalism, Leadership and Service.
